

Check, Please! DC Season 1, Episode 7-12 Descriptions

Check, Please! DC returns in 2018 with six new episodes beginning April 16, presenting journeys of culinary discovery that showcase the diner's perspective on the diverse food scene in Greater Washington and feature restaurant tips from actual customers. Giving knowledgeable local diners a chance to share their experiences in one of the nation's hottest food destinations, the programs spotlight a wide range of neighborhood gems and cuisines throughout the District, Maryland and Virginia. The series also shares cocktail recipes from prominent establishments, in addition to intriguing food facts.

The series gives viewers an unfiltered look at the Greater Washington restaurant scene through a panel of citizen reviewers sharing their favorite eateries and dining experiences. In each episode, three guests select one dining spot for review by the other two guests. After anonymously trying each restaurant recommendation, the guests discuss their experiences together with the show's host, Washington, D.C. restaurant owner Rose Previte.

Episode 7 – Monday, April 16 at 9pm on WETA TV 26

Take a trip around the world with these three unique local dining spots. Guest reviewer selections include a traditional biergarten just outside Annapolis, an eclectic Taiwanese restaurant and marketplace on H Street Northeast, and the flavors of Trinidad in Northwest DC.

Episode 8 – Monday, April 23 at 9pm on WETA TV 26

Neighborhood favorites are up for debate, with guest reviewers discussing a group-friendly Mexican eatery in Dupont Circle, a pizzeria with purpose in Shaw, and cozy Indian fare in NoMa.

Episode 9 – Monday, April 30 at 9pm on WETA TV 26

Flavor and spice from around the world are the main attractions. Guest reviewers explore a Spanish wine bar in Rockville, MD, one of the first ramen shops in D.C., and brew pub comfort food in Hyattsville, MD.

Episode 10 – Monday, May 7 at 9pm on WETA TV 26

From street food to fine dining, guest reviewers select a casually hip Korean spot and a homestyle Afghan bistro in Adams Morgan, as well as a sustainable seafood market and restaurant in Palisades.

Episode 11 – Monday, May 14 at 9pm on WETA TV 26

Guest reviewers discuss comfort food options in Logan Circle and 14th Street NW that will please every palate, at a neighborhood tavern, a creative Northern Thai restaurant, and a Southern-influenced seafood destination.

Episode 12 – Monday, May 21 at 9pm on WETA TV 26

Exploration is the name of the game with these three unique local dining spots. Guest reviewer selections include a trip through Latin America in Northwest DC, a traditional Ethiopian restaurant in Hyattsville, MD, and a unique cultural mash-up of cuisines in Sterling, VA.

WETA continues to accept applications for guest reviewers online on Check, Please! DC, which films at the WETA studios in Arlington, VA. For more information, please visit weta.org/checkplease.

Press materials and photography can be found at weta.org/press.

###

Press Contact

Olivia Wong, WETA Director of Public Relations, 703.998.2086, owong@weta.org