When I look out the window I see... wait a minute what was that? it glided across the sky it flew down until it was hovering right outside my window then I realized what it was. it was an alien spaceship
"Hello" said the alien
"H-H-H-hello" I said.

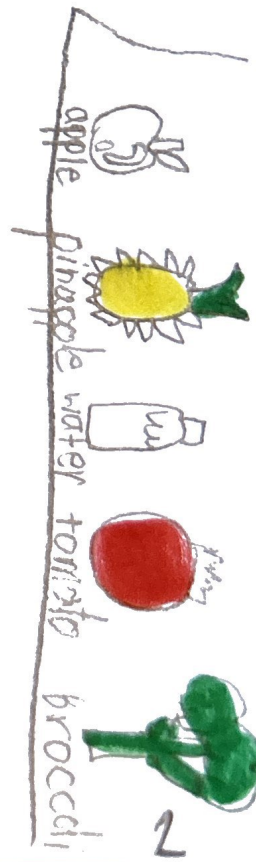

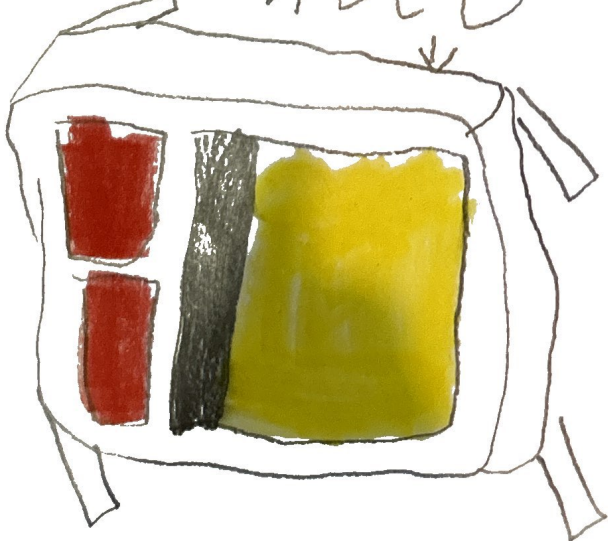

I Come from mars. what are you doing here? I was just checking if anyone saw me he said. But I saw you "Yes" he said "so I will take you home with me." why? I asked "That is for me to know and you to find out." He said. Then he snatched me out and put me into the UFO and this was in there.
