

Barracuda

fish and fish friends
box

Jack M.

When I look out
the window of my submarine I see a colorful little
fish swimming
by.

He is playing with his fish friends
in the ocean and they are in a school.

Suddenly a
barracuda swims
up. He was all alone.

A barracuda is a big fish and the little fish
looked scared.

But the barracuda
wanted a friend.
He asked if he could be friends and the little fish said
yes.

They played tag
and the barracuda
was it!
