Operation Pollination

(Title)

When I look out the window...

I see a pollinator bee fly over me

With a squadron of pollinator planes.

They fly high in the sky.

One bee says they need my help.

They build a pollinator plane
just for me - and shrink me down

Then we pollinate all the plants.

Pollen flies everywhere!

The planes fly across islands of flowers and pollinate them.

Then the bees say,

"Yep! Pollination complete!"

Then we have a little honey picnic and live happily ever after.
