

THE CRAZY AQUARIUM

By: Kingsley

A day at my favorite place – the aquarium – was like any other. I usually visit the sharks, and turtles, and starfish. But today, I was on a mission to see the squids.

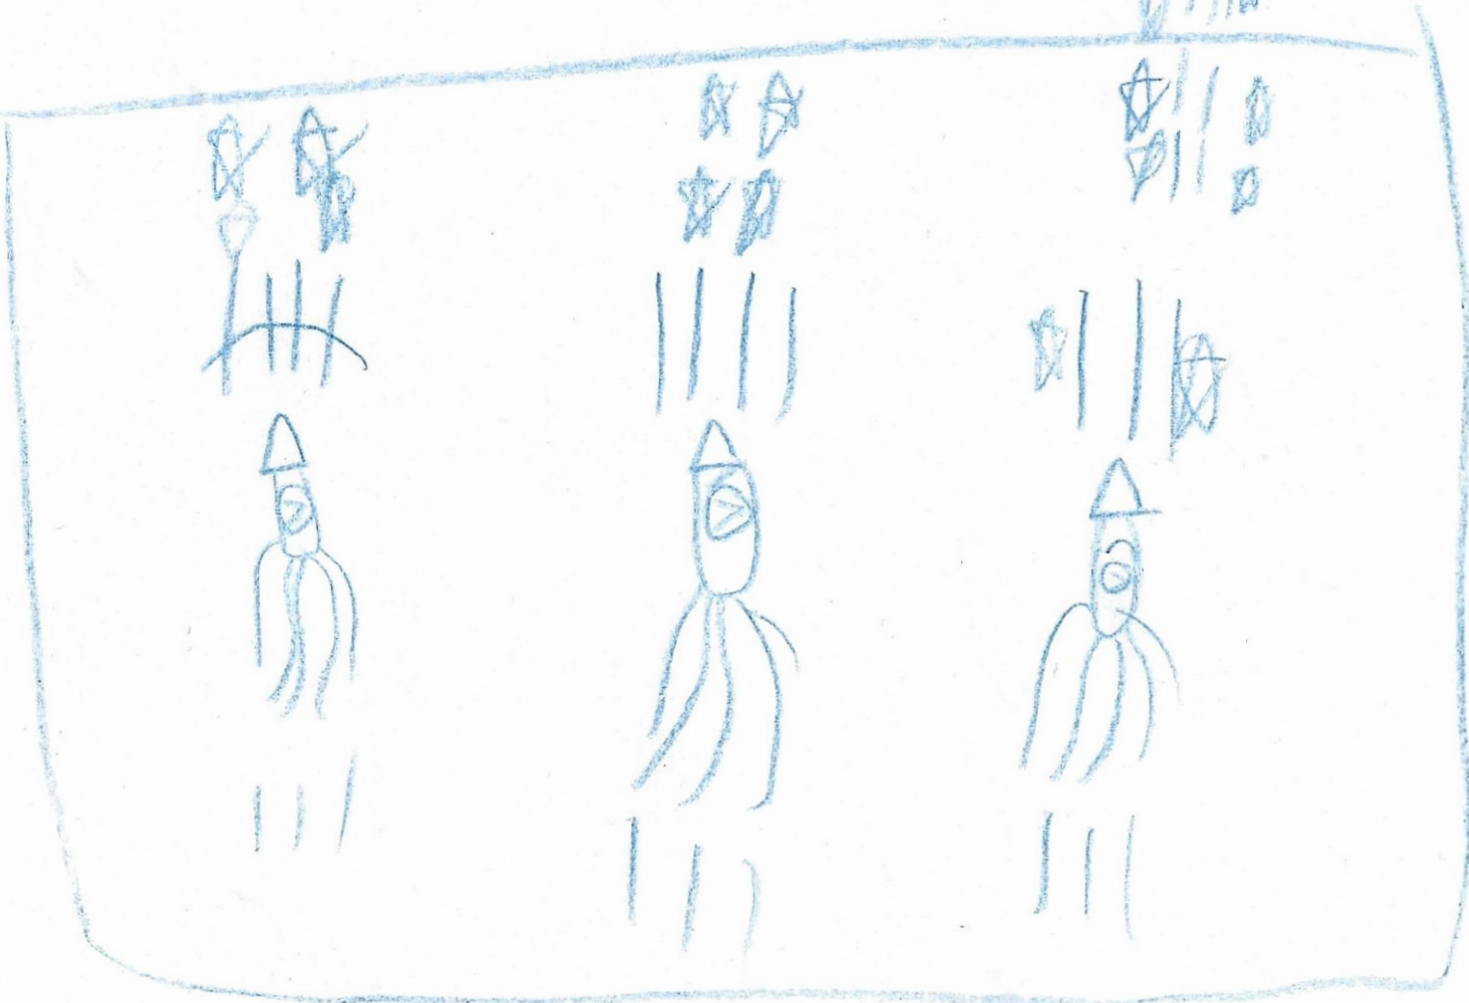

Me and my dad got to the aquarium just in time for the squid show. I wrote my name on a card to feed to squids, and my name was picked. They gave me a jar of peacock feathers to feed the squids. I walked up and fed them.

All of a sudden, the squids grew bigger and bigger and bigger. But that's not it. They started doing crazy tricks. One squid did flips while patting their head and rubbing their belly. Another squid was spinning so fast he made a giant tornado. And the last squid started shooting pillows out of his tentacles.

I ran back to my dad and said, "Dad, I think we need the magic potion."
My dad got the magic potion. I used my jet pack and flew over the squids to pour the potion in the water. The squids started shrinking until they got to their normal size.

Everyone cheered. My dad gave me candy for saving the day.

- The End -

