To my friends Fifi and Rylee

A day at my favorite place, includes my friends Fifi, and Rylee. We were spying on our older sisters and we got hungry and went over to the pantry. I was excited because pantry has so much great foods and a "good" hiding spot for hide and seek. My pantry is my favorite place ever.

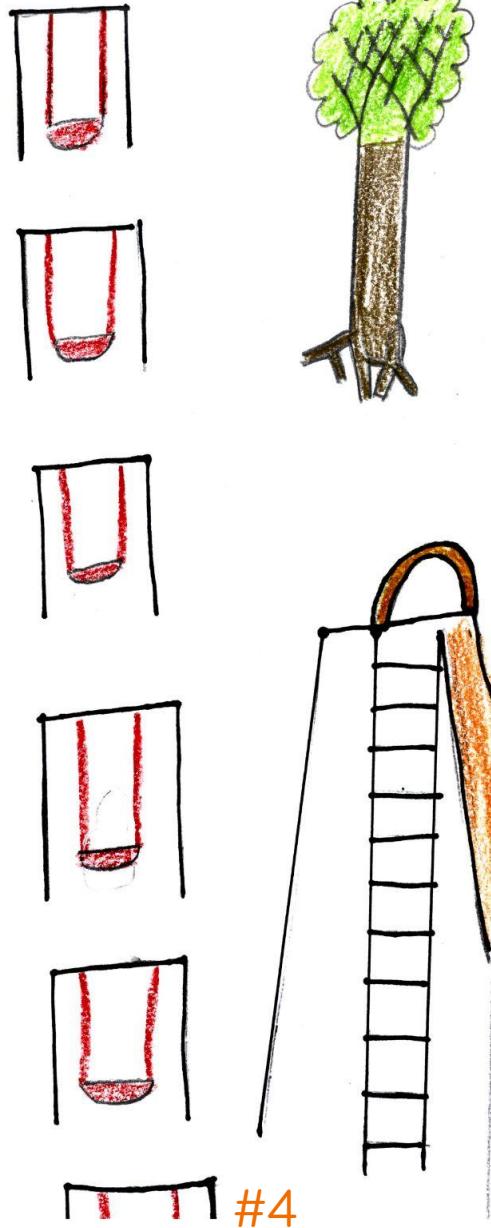

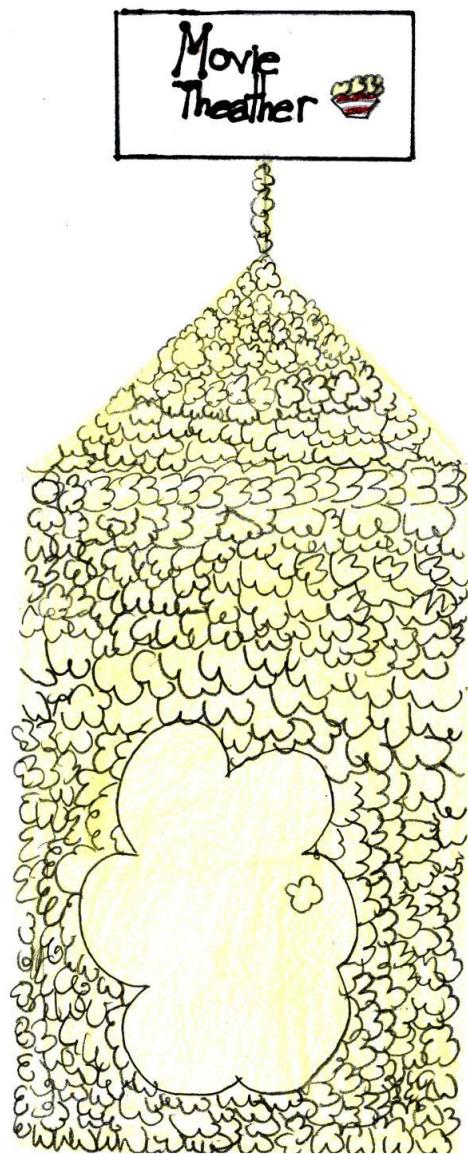

Rylee reached out for chips but there was a loud click. We fell through a trapdoor. We saw a bright light across the small room. We walked towards the light and...

We saw cotton candy clouds, houses made out of apples, strawberries, and bananas. We were standing on a field of uncooked crunchy pasta. Two people ran up to us and yelled, "Welcome to Foodlandia! My name is Berry, this is my brother Pepper. Let us show you around!"

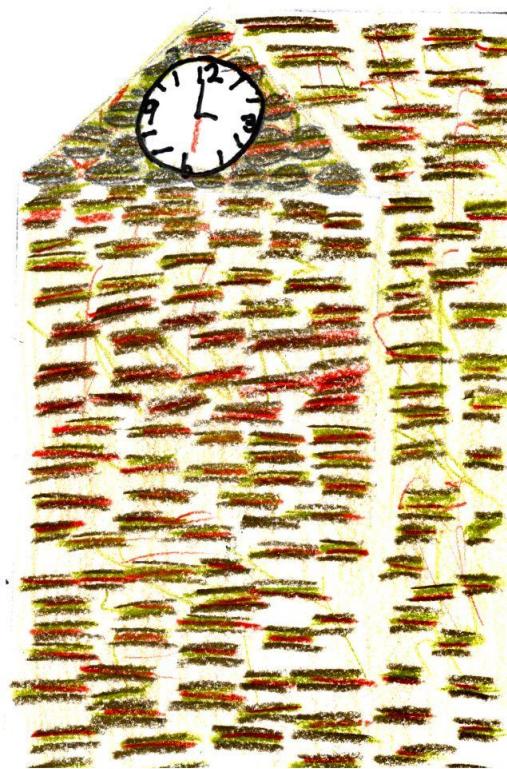

I screamed.
Rylee hid under the pasta.
Fifi said,
"Hello" quietly.

"This is the movie theater made out of popcorn."

"The park with unlimited swings is made out of twizzlers."

"The town hall is made out of hamburgers."

"All this food is making me hungry," Fifi's belly grumbled.

Pepper laughed "Let's go on the flying pizza and go to Chill'n Pie!"

We screamed with excitement!

The restaurant was shaped like a pie with ice cream. Everything like tables and chairs were made out of pie. The menu has pie with cucumbers, eggplants, sausages, candy and more. I ate pizza pie, Rylee ate candy pie, Fifi and Berry ate cherry pie and Pepper ate pepper pie. It was the best pie we have all ever eaten.

We left Chill'n Pie to go to the park to play. As we were playing in the park, Fifi piped up and said "I miss my dad and I want to go home."

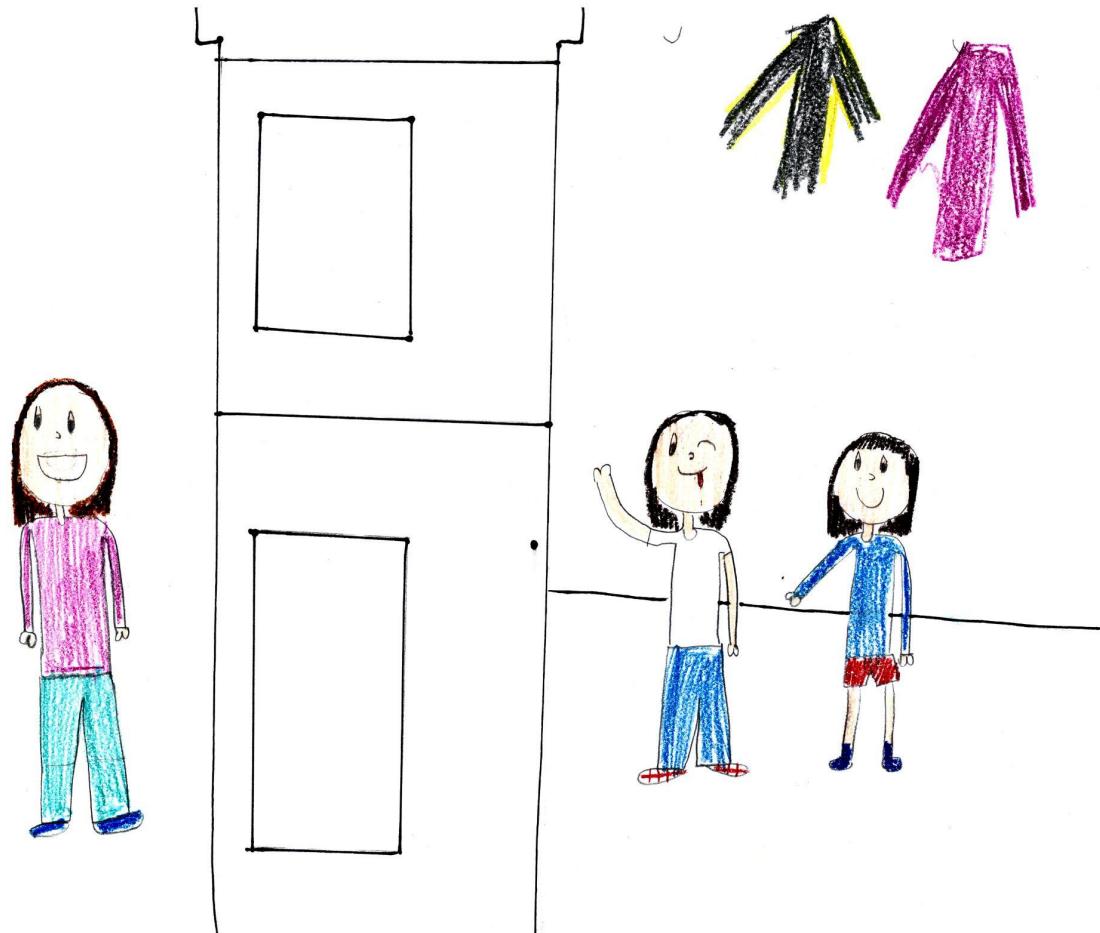

"We will come back soon to visit", we waved goodbye and jumped into the portal.

We arrived back in my pantry, my favorite place, everything looked exactly the same.

"We should keep it a secret because I don't want to ruin Foodlandia for those living there," Fifi said.

We agreed and decided to visit Foodlandia again next Sunday.
