[January 18, 2017; Arlington, VA] – WETA, the flagship public broadcaster in the nation’s capital, commemorates the 10-year anniversary of Classical WETA 90.9 FM as the exclusive provider of classical music in the Washington D.C. market with the new Classical WETA App, available now via iTunes, Google Play, and classicalweta.org. “Classical WETA 90.9 FM has been an essential source for arts and culture in Washington,” said Sharon Percy Rockefeller, president and CEO of WETA, “With our new Classical WETA app, an additional platform becomes available to inspire audiences wherever they are.”

Continuing the station’s mission to reach a wide classical music audience with broad appeal, the Classical WETA App features live-stream access to the station’s 24/7 non-commercial classical music experience, which allows uninterrupted access to beloved original programming such as:

- “Front Row Washington,” currently in its ninth season, featuring performances by top local musicians and ensembles, recorded at venues throughout the Washington area.
- “NSO Showcase,” also currently in its ninth season, broadcasting highlight performances by the National Symphony Orchestra.
- “VivaLaVoce,” the digital service presenting classical vocal music in all its forms.
- “Classical Conversations,” intimate audio interviews with prominent classical music performers, conducted by Classical WETA on-air hosts.

In addition to live-streaming, the app will offer easy access to on-demand audio, broadcast schedule, playlists and additional classical music content.
